MILTON JUNCTION.

The friends of Rev. Mr. Loomis, respective of church or creed, gave a donation visit at Wagner's hall, on Thursday evening last, which was really an enjoyable affair. The plan of the donation was a supper prepared by the ladies, to which tickets were sold at twenty-five cents apiece. At an early hour the hall was thronged with about two hundred persons, and as we dropped in about eight o'clock, some eighty of them might have been seen seated at the ample tables, ranged through the center of the hall, doing their best to dispose of the large quantities of tempting viands with which the tables were loaded.
This process was removed from time to time, by fresh recruits, until all were satisfied and yet there was abundance left.
Meantime the imaginary fish pond constructed across the corner of the hall, with curtains and the less imaginary post office in the opposite corner, were doing good service and creating no small amount of fun and merriment for young and old.
The post office, presided over by Miss Cora Holmes, was well stocked with letters mostly of an amusing nature, which the popular post mistress had no difficulty in selling rapidly for a nickel apiece. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and when later in the evening the Rev. gentleman was called out for a speech, he did not justice to the occasion and those participating for the happy completeness and general enjoyableness of these social benefits at the Junction. The net receipts were over $45.00.

We are indebted to Hon. S. C. Carr and lady for a box of cake and the details of the wedding which they attended at the home of the Hon. Jeremiah Davis, of Davis Junction, Ill., twelve miles from Rockford, on Thursday last. Mr. Davis was formerly a resident of this town and is now one of the wealthiest land owners in Northern Illinois, having some eleven hundred acres of fine prairie land, all under cultivation in the home farm on a portion of which the town of Davis Junction is now built.
The occasion was the marriage of his daughter Alice, an interesting young lady of 20, and Mr. Woodman, of Kane county, Ill. The young couple was united in wedlock at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, and took the 11 o'clock train for Chicago. Some fifty invited guests were present, of whom Mr. Carr and wife, Mr. E. Goodrich and wife and two daughters, and Mr. Henry and Lucy Greenman, all relatives, were among the number. The bride was dressed in a rich dress of brown and gold silk, made en train, with natural flowers at the throat and in her hair. Among the presents, which were all rich in material and value, were the following: Wilson and company, by four brothers of the bride;
"Royal Path of Life" beautifully bound, and silver vase, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. King, of Springfield, Mass.; silver cake stand, by the bride's mother; white silk neck tie, by Mrs. Milton Davis, of Davis Junction; silver syrup cup, Josie Goodrich and Fred Hovey, Milton; butter dish, Mrs. A. Walter, Valley, Ill.; pickle canister, Mrs. A.
Sullivan, Valley, Ill.; silver vase, Miss Lillian, Milton; silver vase, Miss Libbie Dake, Stillman Valley; very large fruit dish, Mr. and Mrs. E. Goodrich, Milton; silver and glass berry dish, Mr. and Mrs. S. C.
Carr, Milton; berry dish, Hattie Fray, Rockford, Ill.; pair vases, Frank and Lotie Foster, Davis Junction; pickle canister, Mrs.
J. E. Gray, Kane county; pickle canister, Mr.
Sheep, Dauter, Davis Junction; silver knives and forks, Mr. and Mrs. J. Woodman, parents of the groom, Kane county; butter dish, Laura Reizer, Freeport, Illinois; silver knife and cream spoon, Mr. and Mrs.
Shaffee, Kane county, Illinois; set of toilet mats and Longfellow's poems, Kittie Shelby, Shannon, Illinois; fluting iron, Mr. J. E.
Kendall, Davis Junction; pillow, stand cloth and spooler, Mrs. Susan Goodrich, Milton; sofa pillow, Mattie and Annie Goodrich, Milton; marble bust of Spring, Henry and Lucy Greenman; set furniture, Mr. and Mrs. J. Davis, parents of the bride; check for $50 by her father. The future home of the bride and groom will be at Black Berry station, Illinois, where Mr. Woodman resides.

Rev. Mr. Wardner preached the second sermon of his series of discourses on the Sabbath question on Saturday morning last at his church in this village. To those desiring to give this special and somewhat peculiar subject a candid hearing, this sermon was a rare opportunity, being a powerful exhortation of the claims of the Bible Sabbath, and a complete refutation of the theory of a change of day or the more generally accepted one day in seven theory.
The last sermon of this series will be given next Saturday morning at the usual hour.

Mr. Charles F. Lane, the enterprising seed grower and wholesale dealer in flower and garden seeds, is a firm believer in the power of printer's ink, judging from the amount of wholesale circulars sent to wholesale dealers all over the country. On Wednesday of last week he sent an installment of 26,000 of a 50,000 lot just issued, his last installment before that being about 1000 in one day. It is an enterprise in this direction will, surely Mr. Lane will deserve to win success.

The Junction Literary or Library Association will give a public entertainment at the new church on the evening of Wednesday, February 19, for the benefit of the library. There has been quite a number of judicious additions to the library recently, in books, magazines and periodicals; and the question of a public reading room on parts of certain days each week, is being agitated somewhat. On the evening spoken of, the proceedings will consist of a fine entertainment above, followed by an old-fashioned New England supper in the basement, served up after the approved methods of an early New England land. The occasion throughout will be enjoyable, and the object surely is worthy. Let all come, there are lots of room.

Marion Gray and Charles Butrick left, last week, for Brownsville, Minnesota, where they propose to take up their residence the coming year.

The rain came on Monday, but did not come in sufficient quantity to fill the cisterns or get tobacco in case, two things much longer for just now.

It is our happy duty, nay duty, to again chronicle the marriage nuptials of one of Milton's old and respected citizens Mr. John R. Butts or "Uncle John" as everybody calls him, who was united in bonds most felicitous on Thursday afternoon last, to Mrs. Mary Nois at the home of her brother-in-law Deacon Erasmus Brown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Rogers, in presence of a house full of invited guests, who gathered to bid good cheer to the veteran voyagers just starting on their new life cruise, and to do justice to the generous banquet prepared by the Deacon's wife in honor of the occasion. It is needless to say that Mrs. Brown was equal to the occasion. The groom and bride repaired at once to the residence of the former near River Church. On Sunday a large number of the friends and neighbors of Mr. Butts gathered at their home giving them a genuine house warming and surprise, and thus ends another chapter.

The young friends of William J.
Stockman gave him a genuine surprise party at the residence of his father Mr.
John Stockman, Esq., on Friday evening the 7th instant, it being his twentieth birthday. About forty persons were present and spent the evening in the enjoyment of social games, music and the general festivities incident to such occasions.

The following named pupils are those present in attendance, for the month ending January 31st, in the District No. 2, Milton and Fulton, Miss E. F. Smart, teacher: Kittie and Jessie Craft, Clara May Kelley, Lizzie and Peter Harten, Maddie, Sadie, Willie and Cora Belle Mizzi, Rahael Austin, Libbie Lasher, Myra E. Kidder,

MILTON.

The suit of Kiley vs Grandman was tried before Justice Clarke Monday afternoon.
Hon. Pliny Norcross appeared for the plaintiff, and Wm Smith, Esq. for the defendant. After a number of witnesses were sworn, the attorneys made quite lengthy pleas. The court rendered judgment for the plaintiff. The garnishee suit was adjudged by the consent of the parties to the 25th instant, to enable the attorney of the St. Paul road to be present.

A genuine York State snow storm struck us Tuesday, and if the weather continues favorable we shall have some first-class sleighing.

Be sure to attend the dramatic entertainment this, Thursday, evening at the Seventh Day Baptist church. Music by the Cornet Band.

EMERALD GROVE.

William Millington butchered a fair sized hog last week weighing 750 pounds.
What beats that?

We stated a few weeks ago that our shoemaker said he had a better thing than cobbling and had struck out as a temperance lecturer. He went to Milwaukee and we should judge he had a better thing by the condition he was in when he returned a few days ago.

It is quite a treat to see Mr. James Dean out again, he has been confined to the house the most of the winter.

Mr. F. M. Goodrich is quite feeble this winter.

We understand that Mr. M. C. Stoller is suffering quite severely from an attack of rheumatism.

Key. W. T. Miller is gaining in health quite fast.

Miss Alice Scott lost her pocket book a short time ago on the road to Janesville, if the finder will leave the same at the post office at Emerald Grove they will be amply paid for their trouble.

SHOPIERE.

Colds are on the increase.

Mr. James Parker shipped two barrels of eggs to Boston last week.

Mr. Tracy visited our schools last week.

The many friends of Rev. Mr. Wilson gathered at the church Tuesday evening, February 4th, and presented to him $50.
Speeches, music, and a good supper prepared by the ladies of the M. E. church, furnished the evening's entertainment.

Mr. A. M. Sprague declares that he can walk two hundred miles in forty-eight hours.

Mr. Sweet is delivering wood for the school district.

Any news you would like delivered to the Shopper Jetter, address box M C C, XXIV.

Two classes of juvenile members in the Congregational Sunday School have arranged a fair to be held at the church, on Friday evening, February 14. There will be on exhibition and for sale various articles useful as well as ornamental. The proceeds are to be given for the support of the missionary cause. Encourage the young missionary workers by attending with your pocket book.

Rev. Mr. Wilson delivered an interesting discourse to a full house in Turtle town hall on Sabbath afternoon. Rev. Mr.
Webb is to preach in the same hall next Sabbath at 8:30 o'clock p. m.

Miss Tarrant acted as organist last Sabbath in the M. E. church, Miss Wilson, the organist, being sick.

Indications are good for more sleighing.

Mr. Robert Wheeler has sold his house and lot to Andrew Butler.

Several of our young people met at John Thomas' on Friday evening and had a social, good time.

TEMPERANCE AT CENTER.

The Prairie Temple of Honor, in the town of Center, gave its first public entertainment last week. Arrangements had been made with the Rev. Jewell L. Jones to deliver a lecture upon the occasion, but owing to the unfavorable state of the weather the committee who waited upon him thought best to defer it until some time in the future, and make such substitution as the necessities of the case might require. The hall was filled with an intelligent audience, many of whom were there expressly to hear a lecture of no ordinary character. Some little disappointment was expressed when the committee arrived without the speaker, but this feeling was soon forgotten when the Rev. T. C. Wilson of Footville, was introduced, and in an impromptu speech of half an hour presented a plea in favor of temperance, replete with facts and figures. The Rev. Mr.
Doremus followed with an address sounding in wit and anecdote, which kept the audience in high good humor, and at the same time impressed them with the magnitude and importance of the work that must be done before the evil of intemperance is rooted out. The speeches were followed by some excellent singing by choir, consisting of Mr. Dean, Mrs. C. S.
Crow, Mrs. Fackler and her daughter Irene with A. B. Parmenter at the instrument. A band, gotten up for the occasion, played several fine instrumental pieces, the leading feature being Mr. Walter Helms with his saxophone.

The oyster supper served up in the large hall below was one that would do credit to a much older organization, and was done ample justice to by many a hungry couple.

It is gratifying to know that the profits were as large as could be expected, and such as will give them encouragement for other efforts.

Although one of the youngest temperance institutions in the country, having received its charter in April last, the Prairie Temple of Honor is doing a good work, and has as promising a future before it as any of its rival sisters. It has already nearly fifty members who are not lacking in enthusiasm for the good cause which they have espoused.

The Story of a Cow-Bell.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette sent the following story of a law-case from Plymouth County, Ind.: "Mayfield and Featheringill were well-to-do farmers. One of Mayfield's cows dropped a bell from her neck in the woods that cost 50 cents, and was half worn and supposed to be worth 25 cents when lost. One of Featheringill's boys, in passing through the woods one day, found a cow-bell.
Mayfield claimed that it was his bell and demanded it. Featheringill refused to give it up. Mayfield then threatened to give it and commenced a lawsuit that absorbed the farms and personal estate of the contestants. Not being able to pay lawyer's fees any longer, the lawyers refused to serve in the case, and the litigants were compelled to compromise, which they did by each agreeing to pay his own costs, which amounted to over $1,500 a side, or an aggregate of over $3,000.

BRIEFLETS.

—More snow.

—Clear the sidewalks.

—Many a corn foretold this storm.

—The Royal Arcanum meets to-night for important business.

—Rev. T. P. Sawin is still confined to the house by illness, but is on the gain.

—The proposed dramatic entertainments of the Veterans are declared "off", for a time at least.

—The idea of a medicine used to fight coughs being called a cough cordial. It should be cough hostile.

—The storm has interfered but little with the railroad time table. The trains have been a few minutes late, but no serious delay has been caused.

—The Guards are busy at work making all things ready for their entertainment and dance to be given Friday evening, February 21. A number of unique attractions are put down on the programme.

—Prof. Severance's masquerade to-night will prove an enjoyable occasion. It is to be a select affair and all the arrangements are such as to make the enjoyment of those who participate complete. Ladies will be admitted free.

—Mr. E. Kent has purchased J. A. Denniston's house and will move it at once on to a lot in the vicinity of Washington and Pleasant streets. Mr. Denniston will build at once a new residence on the lot thus vacated. So the building improvements go on.

—J. L. Ford, the merchant tailor, has received a fine line of seasonable clothes, and is prepared to make to order suits for $16 and $20 that will simply surprise you. He has also a full line of worsted suitings which are fine and will make elegant suits. Go and see for yourself and be well clothed.

—Vankirk, the grocer, has $10,000 worth of fresh staple and fancy groceries which he is anxious to convert into cash, and offers them at prime cost. We doubt if even before or since the war have goods been sold at the prices he is offering them. Read his special and go and get his prices, all that are hungry and would save money.

—The criminal case against Fox and Mills for overdriving Yeager & McKee's horses, is not to be tried again. It has been left to Justice Balch to decide upon the evidence taken at the trial which caused the jury to disagree. Justice Balch will decide the case Friday, unless he too disagrees, which is hardly probable.

—One of the aspirants for the City Marshalship showed last evening his ability to disguise himself, a leading requisite for good detective work. His masquerade costume was so shrewdly devised that even the lady who accompanied him refused to dance with him, because she thought he was a stranger, and he received a cold repulse from several of his fair friends on a like ground. He represented the tramp fraternity.

—Jerry Bates has devised a very marked improvement in broom making, it consisting of two copper wires which are bound around the upper part of the broom to take the place of the twine commonly used. The wire is easily put on, and is a cheap and substantial way of keeping the broom from spreading or losing its shape, and is so simple that the wonder is that somebody didn't think of it before. It seems that it will be a "taking" invention.

—Sam Hubbell declares that a few weeks ago he was taken for a deaf and dumb Teuton. A few days later he was hailed in Beloit by a man who insisted on calling him Burr Robbins, and only yesterday he was complimented on the sermon which he preached at the First Methodist church, the man supposing he was talking to Rev. Mr. Sewell. Sam says it has mixed him up so that he can hardly tell whether he is he or is not he. If he is not he, who is he? That's what he wants to know.

—The annual masquerade given by the Concordia Society at their hall last evening was largely attended, there being over three hundred tickets sold. There was a great variety of costumes, embracing a display of taste as well as a successful indulgence in the grotesque and funny riggings. Many crowded in to see the merry dancers. The dancers themselves had a merry time of it. Anderson's band furnished the music, and all arrangements were such as to render the masquerade the most successful and enjoyable of any yet given by the society.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSEN, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 1 o'clock a. m. stood at 20 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 19 above; at 2 o'clock p. m. at 18 above. Wind and snow.

One year ago to-day at 7 o'clock a. m. the thermometer stood at 25 degrees above and at 2 o'clock p. m. at 38 above.

The indications to-day are: Areas of snow and partly cloudy weather, lower temperature than on Tuesday, and variable winds.

MORE LIGHTNING.

Valentine, Brothers are arranging to stretch telegraph wires from one point to another in the city, establishing various offices which will give still further opportunities for the students of the Telegraph Institute to get a practical knowledge of how to handle the lightning. A line is to be carried out to the Blind Institute, and an operator placed there. Wires will be carried between various prominent business places and manufactories, which will prove a convenience to those who desire to send messages from one point to another, and at the same time give the students more practice.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Tom Ingalls, who lies in jail on the charge of burglarizing Felt's tailor shop, made up his mind yesterday that he wanted to be an angel. There may be great differences of opinion as to what sort of an angel Tom would make, but he became reckless and took the chances. By some means he got hold of a razor and made an attempt to cut his throat but his fellow prisoners grabbed the sharp blade, and took it from him, but not before he had succeeded in making a slight gash on the left side of his neck. Ingalls is said to have become quite blue of late. His surroundings were not pleasant, and his future prospects even less so, and he has at times acted so strangely as to indicate that he is not himself at all times. Yesterday afternoon was one of those times, but fortunately his fellow prisoners stopped his intended suicide.

SUN PICTURES.

Dr. Gish has purchased all the necessary material for a grand stereo-panopticon exhibition, and has arranged to show his pictures next Friday and Saturday evenings at Lappin's hall. They are colossal sun pictures, being between eighteen and twenty feet square, and being similar to those shown by Tremaine, and which proved so popular last winter as to furnish a week's entertainment, the house being crowded each night. The pictures secured by Dr. Gish are, however, much larger, newer, brighter and more distinct, and embrace a large variety of views which have never before been presented to the public. The entertainments are not only pleasing but highly instructive, and afford an excellent opportunity for all to see in a few hours and for twenty-five cents what it would take months of travel and hundreds of dollars to see in any other way. There will be a spicing of comicality to enliven the entertainment, and please the young folks. The pictures will be well worthy of being seen by many eyes and the prices of admission being so low none need stay away for lack of means.

THE NEW ACADEMY.

Rev. Mr. Jackson has met with so much encouragement during his few days' stay in the city that he has about concluded to organize a classical academy here, the first term of which will open early in April next. There is every reason to believe that there will be a goodly number of students at the very beginning of the enterprise, with encouraging prospects for a steady increase. Many have already expressed their intention of becoming patrons of the institution, and others will no less cheerfully do so when they become fully acquainted with the details of the proposed plan, and the acknowledged ability which will enable the management to carry this plan to a successful completion. Those who desire to learn further of the movement will find Prof. Jackson at the rooms of the Young Men's Association to-morrow forenoon between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, and he will gladly impart all desired information. He will leave the city to-morrow afternoon, but will return in ample time to complete his other arrangements for opening his school about the first of April.

LIFE IN FLORIDA.

The storm last evening caused many to stay at home who would otherwise have gladly listened to the lecture by Mrs. Matie Bridges at Court Street Church. Those who were present were highly gratified and speak in glowing terms of the fair speaker. Mrs. J. D. King played an overture on the organ, after which Mrs. Bridges was introduced to the audience by Rev. G. W. Lawrence. Her topic of talk was "Life in Florida." She knew whereof she spoke, as for eleven years she had lived in that State. She spoke of its climate, and soil, and the peculiarities of social life there, giving many interesting facts and sprightly illustrations. She also gave some interesting facts concerning her own personal life. She showed herself to be an accurate and careful observer of all that has come to her knowledge, and has a vivid and at times eloquent manner of giving her hearers the benefit of the same. She is a graceful speaker, a wide-awake thinker, and made a very favorable impression upon the audience. At the close of her lecture Hon. H. A. Patterson moved a vote of thanks which was carried with enthusiasm. Mrs. Bridges today left for Brodhead where she lectures this evening. From there she goes to Monroe and to Albany. She has another lecture on "Temperance" which she may deliver in Jacksonville under the auspices of some society. If she again speaks here she will doubtless have a much larger number of hearers.

THE STATE FAIR.

To the Editor:

An article in your paper last evening relative to the State Fair, prompts me to beg space sufficient to state the exact facts, in order that no injustice may be done the Rock County Agricultural Society, of which I am a member.

January 19, 1878 the Rock County Agricultural Society passed a resolution, tendering their grounds, as they were, to the State Society for the purpose of holding a fair the ensuing fall, provided $750.00 was raised by our citizens to apply on the indebtedness of the Society, and our own members privileged to pass the gates during the fair week upon payment of $1.50 each.

The money was subscribed, and the tender of the grounds was made to the Executive Committee at their meeting held in Madison, Feb. 4th. So instead of accepting this or other offers, they passed a resolution requiring the grounds to be put in perfect order wherever the Fair should be held, and appointed a committee of five to receive proposals and locate the Fair. That committee consisted of ex-Governor Ludington, Clark, Miner, Boyce, and Stillson.

July 21, 1878, the Rock County Agricultural Society held another meeting, re-considered its action of January 19th, and unanimously resolved to tender their grounds, fitted up in every respect complete, without any expense to the State Society and without any reservations.

That tender was made to the locating committee, the same convening in Madison, and when the vote was taken four were in favor of Madison, one for Janesville, Governor Ludington and Sat Clark being the reason why they voted in favor of Madison, that it was a distinct understanding at the time the Fair was located in Janesville that it should go to Madison the next year.

Dr. Martin says that he was given the privilege last summer, by the Executive Committee, of locating the Fair if he desired to do so. He undoubtedly meant the summer previous. Will he be kind enough to state where and when that committee met? Further, where and when did he attempt to treat with the Rock County Society, and was repulsed?

It Stopped the Cough!

From the Hon. James Ross, Grand Lecturer I. O. G. T. Wis.

I take great pleasure in giving testimony to the efficacy of Hale's Cough Cordial in easily curing a persistent cough and catarrh. For a month while engaged nightly in public speaking, I had suffered with an annoying cough, and was finally relieved by the various cough remedies that I had taken. Through the advice of friends I fortunately gave Hale's Cough Cordial a trial, when my coughing ceased at once, and the following day it had done its work complete and I felt all right. The first dose went directly to the cold spot in my lungs, and in the midst of a general warmth and perspiration the stubborn cough seemed to dissolve. In gratitude and esteem, I am,

Yours truly,

JAMES ROSS.

Mrs. Sarah A. Elliott.

Authors of "Mrs. Elliott's Housewife," Oxford, N. C. writes: I was among the first that used the "London Hair Color Restorer" in this section, and recommended it to M. A. & C. A. Santos, Norfolk, Va., as the most beautiful hair dresser and preserver I had ever seen. I was advised by an eminent physician to use it. Since doing so, it has proved so satisfactory in restoring and beautifying my hair, as well as strengthening my eyesight, that I have recommended it to the druggists here in Oxford, Raleigh, and a great many other friends, and believe I have from what others say, caused it to have a wide and extended sale, and deservedly so, as it certainly is the most cleanly and effective hair restorer now before the American people. The "London Hair Color Restorer" can be obtained at all the leading druggists at 75 cents a bottle, or $4 for six bottles.
